

PREAMBLE

Olympism is a basic fundamental and philosophy of life, exalting and combining in a balanced whole the qualities of body, will and mind, as well as blending sport with culture and education that seeks to create a way of life based on the joy of effort, the good educational value and respect for universal fundamental ethical principles.

Olympic Movement is the concerted, organized, universal and continuous activities, carried out under the supreme authority of IOC of all individuals and entities who are inspired by the values of Olympism. It covers the five continents as illustrated in the symbol of 5 (five) interlaced rings. It reached its peak with the bringing together of the world's athletes at the great sports festival, the Olympic Games.

It is fully aware that the practice of sport is a human right upon the Almighty and Greatness of God, which is essential to the harmonious development of man in a balanced whole of body, will and mind, and hence every individual must have the possibility of practicing sport, without discrimination of any kind without exception, and in the Olympic spirit, which requires mutual understanding with a spirit and great value of friendship, solidarity and fair play, and therefore, the organization, administration and management of sport must be controlled by independent sports organizations.

Being aware of the responsibility for the State and Nation, and responsibility that the final purpose of sport practices in Indonesia is to reach the aspiration of developing the undivided Indonesian people, who can have best performances in regional, continental or worldwide competitions, to have a role and contribution in national development, and to actively participate in building a peaceful and better world.

Upon blessing from and by thanking God Almighty, we, the Indonesian national sports federations, patriots and world peace advocates, have determined and decided to establish 1 (one) national sports organization in the spirit and great value of Olympism and Olympic Movement, whose Statutes is as follows:
