ALLOCATION SYSTEM PRINCIPLES

METHOD	DESCRIPTION	TOTAL
A. HOST COUNTRY ALLOCATION	Places 1 and 2 will be awarded to the host nation. The unallocated places will be allocated by the World Triathlon Duathlon Rankings. The eligibility criteria also apply to the places allocated to the host nation.	2 places
B. NOC ALLOCATION	Places 3 to 20 will be allocated to the NOCs in order of the highest athletes ranked on the World Triathlon Duathlon Ranking as of August 18th 2025. These athletes will not have previously qualified their NF a place (letter A above). Athletes from NOCs with two (2) quota places already earned will not be considered and the quota place will roll down. If this list is exhausted the 2025 World Championships Pontevedra (elite sprint) will be used. If this process is exhausted and not all spots have been assigned, the same process will be followed considering the 3rd best athlete per NOC.	18 places

	In case not all spots are assigned the remaining ones will be added to the letter C below.
C. INVITATION	Places 21 to 25 (and those unallocated by letter B above) will be allocated by World Triathlon and ISSA as invitations to ensure universality. The maximum limit of three (3) athletes per NF cannot be exceeded by giving an invitation. The first 3 points of the eligibility criteria apply to the invitation places, however, invited athletes are not affected by the 4th point. The deadline for NFs to submit their requests for invitational places is August 10th 2025. World Triathlon and ISSA will confirm, in writing the allocation of Invitation places to the NF by August 21st 2025. The minimum eligibility criteria also apply to Invitation places.	5 places

Unused and reallocated places will follow the procedure indicated in letter B above.
