9. Competition Rules and Regulations

9.1 Technical Officials

The Rowing and Canoeing Association of Thailand: RCAT is responsible for and has full control of the technical organization of the Rowing competition, in consultation with the International Technical Delegates (TD)

9.2 Competition Rules

The Rowing competition of the 33rd SEA Games Thailand 2025 will be held in accordance with the latest World Rowing Rules Book (WR), in force during the Games time.

Competition Rules and Regulations under the guidance of Technical Delegate (TD) appointed by SEARF.

In case of any disagreement in language interpretation of the Competition Rules and Regulations, the English version shall prevail. Any unforeseen cases not covered by the rules and regulations shall be resolved as follows:

9.1.1 General Issues: To be resolved in accordance with the SEAGF Charter and Rules.

9.1.2 Technical Issues: To be resolved in accordance with WR Rules and Regulations and WR Norms.

9.3 Competitive Format

9.3.1 Rowing (Classic)

The racing course shall have six (6) lanes, measuring 2,000 meters in length and thirteen point five (13.5) meters in width.

9.3.1.1 Progression System

Should the number of the crews taking part in an event exceed the number of lanes designated by the Organizing Committee, a progression system shall be used to determine the finalists. The progression systems shall be applied according to World Rowing Rules of Racing (WR) on the Progression system.

9.3.1.2 Draw

The allocation of lanes for teams at the elimination heats or preliminary race will take place during the Team Manager's Meeting by Draw.

9.3.1.3 Tie-Break Procedures

In a heat, if a dead heat occurs between crews, the crew which had the higher ranking in the immediately preceding round will progress to the next round. If all crews involved in the dead heat progresses anyway into the next round, there will be no re-row.

In a Repechage round, if a dead heat occurs between crews and if only one (1) of the crews progresses into the next round, it shall be the crew which had the highest ranking in the immediately preceding round. The immediately preceding round shall be the last previous round in which both/all of the dead heat crews competed. If the crews had the same result in that round, then the ranking of the next previous round shall be used for this purpose. If on this basis of the results of the crews concerned are identical, then there must be a re-row over the full course between the crews involved. If all crews involved in the dead heat progresses anyway into the next round, there will be no re-row.

In a final, if a dead heat occurs between crews, then they will be given equal placing in the final order and the next placing(s) shall be left vacant.

9.3.2 Rowing (Beach Sprint)

The racing course shall have 2 lanes where the competition course is on the open sea. The course shall comprise (1) a land section (2) a water section (3) a land section which include a run on the beach of between approximately 10 meters and 50 meters to start and finish the race with an on-water distance of 250 meters approximately from the beach to the farthest turning buoy. The race will then comprise 10 meters and 50 meters run from the start line to the water, 250 meters (buoys at approximately 85m+85m+80m) row out, a similar 250 meters row back and 10 meters and 50 meters run to the finish.

9.3.2.1 Time trial

The crews shall race from the beach in a slalom around each of the three buoys in turn in the lane designated as the out-bound lane, turning 90 degrees at the outermost buoy, rowing directly to the outermost buoy of the designated in-bound lane and after rounding this buoy shall race directly in a straight line back to the designated point on the beach and run to the beach finish line. Crews must correctly round all buoys and not interfere with other crews (Annex A)

9.3.2.2 Repechage, Quarter Final, Semi Finals and Finals:

The crews shall race “Slalom out/Straight back” When all crews are in their boats, they shall race from the beach in a slalom fashion around each of the three buoys in turn in their respective racing lanes, turning around the last buoy. After rounding the last buoy, they shall then race directly in a straight line back to the designated point on the beach. (Note: Crews not taking a straight line course back to the beach or arriving at the beach at other than the designated point shall not be penalized as long as they do not these Regulations.) Crews must ensure that they go around each of the three buoys in turn in the correct direction on the outward sector. (Annex B)

9.3.2.3 Draw

The allocation of the time trail for all crew will take place during the Team Manager’s Meeting by Draw.

9.3.2.4 Tie Break Procedures

If there is a dead-heat in any round other than a final, there must be a re-row over the same course between the crews involved. The re-row must take place not later than 10 minutes after the finish of the race in which the dead-heat occurred. If the re-row results in a dead-heat the crews shall be required to re-row the race again not later than 15 minutes after the finish of the previous re-row. This process will continue until a decision is reached. If a dead-heat occurs in a final the crews concerned shall be given equal ranking and the next ranking shall be left vacant.

9.3.2.5 Boat Handlers

There shall be up to two (2) boat handlers per boat. In adverse or rough water conditions the President of the Jury may allow or may require the number of boat handlers per boat to be increased. The boat handlers for each crew should wear matched uniforms or bib and are clearly distinguishable from the crew.

9.4 Crew Change
