9. Competition Rules and Regulations

9.1 Competition Rules

The Sailing Competition of the 33rd SEA Games Thailand 2025 will be held in accordance with the rules as defined in the 2025-2028 Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS) which published by World Sailing, in force during the Games time.

Competition Rules and Regulations under the guidance of Technical Delegate (TD) appointed by Asian Sailing Federation (ASAF)

In case of any disagreement in language interpretation of the Rules and Regulations, the English version shall prevail. Any unforeseen cases not covered by Rules and Regulations shall be resolved as follows:

9.1.1 General Issues: To be resolved in accordance with the SEAGF Charter and Rules.

9.1.2 Technical Issues: To be resolved in accordance with ASAF Rules and Regulation and WS Norms.

9.2 Competitional Format

9.2.1 Each event consists of an opening series, specifically:

- A 16-race opening series, for the men's and women's iQFOiL.
- A 12-race opening series, for the Techno 293 Plus.
- A 16-race opening series, for the men's and women's Formula kite.
- A 10-race opening series for the men's, women's and mixed dinghy.
- A 6-race opening series for the SSL.

9.2.2 For Dinghy Fleet Racing, Both Individual and Mixed 470 events, the sailing competition will consist of a series consisting of up to 10 races. The maximum races per day is 3.

9.2.3 For the Keelboat SSL Racing event, the sailing competition will consist of a series of up to 6 races. The maximum number of races per day is 3. These races may be umpired.

9.3 Scoring

Scoring, in each event all the boats will be scored according to Appendix A Scoring in 2025-2028 Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS).

9.5 Judging

The action in Sailing can be spread out over a wide area with a big fleet taking different routes in order to sail the course as fast as possible. Therefore, it is impossible to have direct judging in such a race. Sailing has a system of "self-policing" whereby if a boat feels that they have been infringed by another boat on the water, they can call to the other boat to take a Penalty according to RRS. If the team fails to take the penalty, or an official observes an infringement of the rules, a "protest" is filed by the competitor or official and a hearing is convened. There is a time limit after the end of racing for the day in which a protest may be filed with officials; therefore, it is quite common for results to be amended after the completion of racing. Protests are more common than in most other sports and are a normal part of the game. The most common rule infringements for disqualification are when two boats are crossing on opposite tracks and when rounding marks. During the SSL racing, if Umpired fleet racing is used because of a smaller fleet, all judges' decisions will be made during the race, and immediately after the race the final result will be calculated, and medals awarded.

- 9.6 The SEA Games Notice of Race, Sailing Instructions, and relevant regulations listed in specified in the competition announcement will be announced in detail according to the sailing competition regulations.

9.7 Protests and Appeals

All technical Sailing sports competition protests and appeals must be conducted in accordance with The Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS), govern the sport of sailboat and sailboard racing. The current edition is RRS 2025–2028.
